

Kristin DeWitt

View-Finders Market Research

Your vision is our focus

Kristin DeWitt is currently an Account Manager at View-Finders Market Research after coming to the company in September of 2011. She manages local and national qualitative and quantitative studies for a variety of clients and industries. Before joining View-Finders, Kristin worked as a marketing assistant in the Marketing & Advertising department at RFI LLC from June 2009 through September 2011. While there she was responsible for keeping a strict brand image, setting up national trade shows, and understanding how consumer opinion could strengthen business advertising. Kristin graduated from Pace University with a bachelor's degree in Marketing and a concentration in advertising and promotions in May of 2009.

